

Welcome to the Endsleigh Insurance Portal

St Hilda's School has made it easier for you to protect your child from the unexpected. This easy to use insurance portal allows you to view and update your child's insurance needs online at a time that suits you.

Why the Endsleigh Insurance Portal?

Opt in to additional insurances for your children, check existing levels of cover at any time, update details such as term fees and make a claim – all in one place, online.

Choose your insurance cover:

The following cover is available for you to choose on the portal:

Included:

Personal Accident Insurance

Optional insurance cover(s) available:

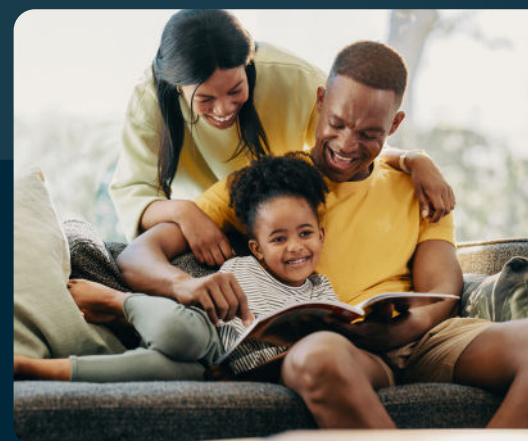

- Personal Possession's Insurance
- Pupil Absence Insurance

Register to view your cover:

- Copy this link to register: <https://portal.endsleigh.co.uk/registration?code=32>
- Register your details and add your child's details. If you have more than one child at school, you'll be able to add them separately.
- Once your child has been added, you'll be able to view the cover(s) available.

New for this year! Parent-guardian helpline

A 24/7 helpline which gives you access to qualified counsellors with specialist knowledge of children and young adults' wellbeing and mental health concerns. We are providing this valuable service as a benefit to parents and guardians of our schools partners. Find out more by clicking on the link below. Access is simple - all you need to do is register.

Need more information?

If you need any further help or information regarding your cover, please contact your school.
